Dear [REDACTED]:

I have your letter of 14 February, and I just want to assure you [REDACTED] has my confidence. I hope you will be able to pass on to him any message you have for me. Then, if necessary, we can have a meeting at some later date.

Faithfully yours,

MEMORANDUM TO:

VIA

: Assistant Director, Office of Operations

SUBJECT

Attached is a copy of a letter I received from [redacted]. I can't quite make out what the fellow wants, and when he tried to explain it to me some weeks ago when I only had half a minute, I couldn't make any sense of it. However, I am writing to him that [redacted] has my complete confidence and that if he has anything to say to please let [redacted] have it. If [redacted] can make any "head or tail" of what [redacted] has in mind, we can decide what, if anything, we can do about it. [redacted] is supposed to be quite a brilliant fellow, but I find him very confusing.
